Fire in a Warehouse

Several People Lose Their Lives at Albany, N. Y.

NARROW ESCAPE OF OTHERS.

Twelve Women and Four Men Imprisoned in the Burning Building—Some of Them Meet Death by Jumping. While Others Escape with But Slight Injuries.

ALBANY, N. Y., Sept. 10.—Fire started at 1:45 p. m., Monday, in the paper stock warehouse of P. J. McArdle, corner of Arch and Church streets. The building was a four-story brick structure and was filled with junk. The flames spread with great rapidity, and the entire structure was soon a seething mass of flames upon which the volumes of water seemed to have no effect. In an hour the west wall fell.

An immense crowd of people were attracted to the spot by the dense volumes of smoke. A cry of horror went up as a woman was seen in a fourth-story window surrounded by the flames. She looked below for a moment and then jumped to the pavement. Her ribs were fractured and she sustained internal injuries that will prove very serious. Her name is Ellen Frank.

Daniel Cannon, a boy was the next to appear in the window. He jumped, receiving a fracture of the ribs.

Richard Gamble jumped down the elevator shaft and was fatally injured. A Mrs. Powers jumped from a fourth-story window and fell upon a pile of iron. She was horribly bruised and will die. The latter two were taken to the hospital.

The fire originated in the second-story, but from what cause is unknown. The spread of the flames was so quick and the heat so great that it was reported that a number of operatives did not have time to escape. The most alarming reports were circulated. It was impossible to obtain the names of the operatives, and thought but a search will reveal the truth or falsity of the exciting rumors. A large number were employed in assorting the junk, many of them women of an advanced age.

When the walls fell the streams began to take effect and the fire was speedily under control. The west wall in falling badly damaged the roof of a two-story brick building. The names of the two women burned to death were Mrs. Scott and Mrs. Hyman. Mrs. Powers, who jumped from the window, said to a United Press reporter that these two women did not escape. Mrs. Ellen McShane has been taken to the hospital with a badly sprained ankle.

When the fire started there were twelve women and four men in the building, all in the fourth story. The flames spread so rapidly that there was no time to escape by the stairway, and the roof and windows were used. Three men got out by the hoisting apparatus, but Richard Gamble, the book keeper, jumped down the elevator shaft, and was injured so that he died at 6:30 last night.

Four women jumped from the fourth story window. Mrs. Mack, aged 30 years, fell on a pile of scrap iron, sustaining injuries, from which she died at 11 o'clock last night.

Others badly injured were: Lulu Hartmann, Carrie Swartz, Ellen Frank, Mrs. McShane, Daniel Gorman and John Biglin. All of the latter will recover. McArdle's loss is about $50,000; fully insured.

A FLOODED MINE.

Ten Men Drawn and Their Bodies Cannot be Recovered for Weeks.

GOLDEN, Cal., Sept. 10.—One of the most serious mining accidents ever known in this portion of the state occurred late yesterday afternoon in White Ash coal mine near this place. An abandoned mine alongside of White Ash has for months been full of water, which yesterday afternoon, without a moment's warning, burst through into the White Ash mine filling it with mud and water.

Ten miners are known to have been at work in the mine at the time of the disaster and not one of them could have lived five minutes after the surging mass broke in upon them. It will probably take two or three weeks to reach their bodies. The names of but three of the unfortunate men can now be given—John Murphy, John Morgan and Allen—but it is positively known that ten lives have been lost. Most of them have families. The work of pumping and clearing out the mine will be commenced at once.

Five Men Killed in a Boiler Explosion.

CARBONDALE, Ill., Sept. 10.—At 11:35 yesterday forenoon, a boiler used on a farm of John W. Snider, half a mile east of this city, exploded with disastrous results. Five men lost their lives, viz: John W. Snider, Thomas Lyget, Andrew J. Lyget, John Briggs and Isaac Miller (colored). The men were grouped about the boiler which was leaking and giving trouble. Mr. Snider gave the order to shut down, when in an instant the boiler exploded. William G. Spiller was blown some distance and escaped with a broken leg. All the men except Andrew J. Lyget have families and all are residents of this vicinity.

Bradie Did Go Over the Falls.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Steve Brodie, the latest hero of Niagara, yesterday, accompanied by his witnesses, Ernest Jerrold, Louis Ledger and John McCarthy, went before Notary Public B. B. Wolf, of 74 Essex street, and in a sworn affidavit told the story of the passage over the falls by Brodie last Saturday. The affidavit simply reiterates the story as published in these dispatches on Saturday, and as sworn to and signed by the four men above mentioned.

FREIGHT TRAIN WRECKS.

A Collision on the New York, Lake Erie and Western Railroad.

BELFAST, N. Y., Sept. 10.—A bad collision between freight trains occurred on the New York, Lake Erie and Western railroad, near Cuba, early yesterday morning. Two sections of an eastbound train had orders to meet No. 81, the Erie's fast freight, at Cuba Summit, four miles from Cuba station.

The first section had proceeded about a mile when the fast freight came thundering down the heavy grade, and the two trains crashed together, throwing between fifteen and twenty cars down the high embankment, completely demolishing them and their contents. The trainmen escaped with slight injury by jumping, except brakeman Gray, of Wellsville, who was caught under the cars and instantly killed.

A Freight Wreck in Virginia.

LYNCHBURG, Va., Sept. 10.—A freight wreck occurred at an early hour yesterday morning four miles below this city on the Norfolk and Western railroad, resulting in the killing of Fireman McDowley, of Petersburg, Va., and perhaps fatal injury of brakeman Randolph. The first section of the train broke loose on a heavy grade and seven cars ran back into the second section, which was but a short distance in the rear with the result stated. The injured brakeman was brought to this city where his leg was amputated.

SHOT BY TRAMPS.

Who Objected to Being Driven Out of Can Shoot.

COSHOCTON, O., Sept. 10.—While Marshal Huggins was trying to make some drunken tramps leave Coshocton yesterday they turned and opened fire on him, shooting him twice in the breast, but not seriously. Lee Kinger, a by-stander, was shot through the leg. After the shooting the sheriff and his deputies started in pursuit of the shooters. When they were cornered they kept up a steady and regular firing. Fortunately no one was shot.

While crossing the river one of their number was captured, being so drunk that he would have drowned if he had not been rescued, and another of the number escaped in a cornfield, and kept firing away every time any one got near him. A great many shots were fired at him. Finally he was pressed so closely that he took refuge under the river bank and did not surrender then, notwithstanding there were more than a dozen guns pointed at him, some ten feet away, and while he was trying to shoot J. J. Rose, who had a Winchester rifle, got the drop on him, shooting him through the arm, the ball passing through his cheek to the back of his neck, and there taking a downward course. The ball was taken from his back last night. Its course was about sixteen inches.

Two of the men are now in the county jail, and refuse to give their name. One of them says he is cowboy from Texas.

AN EARTHQUAKE IN WISCONSIN.

An Immense Stone Mill Cracked, and an Artesian Well Ceases to Flow.

KAUKAUNA, Wis., Sept. 10.—The village of Florence, Outagamie county, a small place one mile above here, was shaken on Saturday by what is believed to have been an earthquake. The disturbance of the earth's interior seemed to have been directly under the spot where stands the immense pulp and paper mill of the Van Norwick-Rogers company, and great damage was done to the structure.

The mill was but recently completed. It is built entirely of stone, and the immensity of the same can readily be guessed from the fact that it is the largest paper and pulp mill in the United States. The damage to the mill will reach far into the thousands. The north and east walls of the mill are cracked in many places, and have separated from the floor and roof several inches.

All of the machinery in the north end will have to be set over, as it is all out of place, many shafts being bent.

An artesian well on the bluff, 200 feet above the mill, has ceased to flow since the occurrence.

IN THE HANDS OF A GORILLA.

An Akron Man Badly Injured and Disfigured by One of the Feroocious Animals.

FORT WAYNE, Ind., Sept. 10.—Yesterday afternoon Isaiah Slade, of Akron, O., visited the barn of W. H. Stewart where a ferocious gorilla is caged. The animal had just been fed, and one of the bars of the cage had been left up.

As soon as Slade entered the barn the animal sprang toward the opening of the cage, and forced its way through the same. Instantly it knocked Slade down. The yells of the unfortunate victim brought Stewart in, who, with great difficulty, drove the animal into the cage. Slade had his whiskers torn out, one eye gouged out, a part of his nose torn off, and is completely prostrated by fright. The animal is to be sent to Detroit for exhibition.

A Boston Manufacturer Suicides.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Sept. 10.—Eben Dale, aged 45, a Boston manufacturer, who for many years has been a summer resident at Fresh Water Cove, committed suicide there this morning by shooting himself in the head with a pistol. Some years ago Mr. Dale had Roman fever, the lingering effects of the disease causing him considerable trouble in warm weather, and this is supposed to be the cause of the suicide.

Dropped Dead at Coney Island.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—James McInerney, supreme trustee of the Catholic knights of America, a very influential benefit society dropped dead at Coney Island last evening. He was 50 years of age and was widely known and respected throughout the order.

Trying to Compromise

Efforts Being Made to Settle the London Strike.

THE LORD MAYOR INTERESTED.

A Plan of Settlement Formulated, Which Will Be Submitted for Ratification to Meetings of Both Parties—Other Dispatches from Abroad.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The negotiations looking toward a settlement of the great strike have scarcely been interrupted by the slight outburst of feeling caused by the refusal of the strikers to endorse the action of their leaders in accepting the last compromise proposed. The lord mayor, notwithstanding his threat to wash his hands of the whole business after the strikers had rejected his proposals, was engaged yesterday in the work of harmonizing the two opposing interests.

Cardinal Manning and Bishop Temple ably seconded the lord mayor's efforts, and all three held conferences yesterday with representatives of the dock companies and of the striking laborers. All the parties to these conferences were bound to secrecy, but it is learned that a compromise agreement was formulated which met the approval of all present and which now requires only the formal ratification of the dock managers on one side and the strikers on the other to make it binding. The agreement will be submitted for ratification to meetings of both parties in interest.

Schnaubeit in London.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—For the last fifteen months, Rudolph Schnaubeit, the Chicago Anarchist, who is supposed to have thrown the fatal bomb in the Haymarket riot, has been living in London under the protection of an Anarchist named Penkert. The utmost secrecy has been observed with regard to Schnaubeit's presence here, but recently his identity was discovered, and his patron changed his quarters. It is now learned that Schnaubeit has fled the city, fearing that he would be arrested and extradited to Chicago. It is thought that he has gone to Copenhagen.

Thanks of the Pope.

BERLIN, Sept. 10.—The pope has sent a telegram to Herr Wintthorst, the leader of the clerical party in the German reichstag, thanking him for convening the Catholic congress at Rham and another to Prince Bismarck conveying his thanks for permitting the congress to assemble. Bismarck replied to the pope's telegram, notwithstanding he had questioned the convening of the congress, he was not all in accord with the work it had done.

The Antwerp Disaster.

ANTWERP, Sept. 10.—Many of the oldest windows of the cathedral here were destroyed by the explosions of Saturday. The bodies of numerous victims were recovered from the ruins of the cartridge factory yesterday. Many others were blown to atoms and only portions of their apparel can be found. Among these were five English visitors.

The Shah of Persia Arrived.

ODESSA, Sept. 10.—The Shah of Persia has relinquished his plan to visit Odessa before his return home. He is greatly alarmed at his recent railway accident and has grown suspicious that it was not altogether an accident. He will on this account get out of Russia as quickly as possible and go direct to Persia.

Not Our Money.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The negotiations which have been pending for some months between the Bulgarian government and a syndicate of New York bankers for a loan of 25,000,000 florins, have finally fallen through and the Bulgarians are now looking to Berlin and Vienna to place the loan.

Will Visit the Vatican.

ROME, Sept. 10.—It is reported that the Empress Frederick of Germany has designated her intentions of paying a visit to the Vatican in course of her sojourn in Italy.

Renounced the Catholic Church.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 10.—Fully 8,000 Roman Catholic Czechs residing in the government of Vilna, have renounced their own religion and joined the Greek church.

Edison Banquetted.

PARIS, Sept. 10.—The municipality of Paris gave a banquet last night to Mr. Edison. It was very largely attended and was a brilliant success throughout.

Leaving the Emerald Isle.

DUBLIN, Sept. 10.—The emigration returns for Ireland for the past year show that 78,784 persons emigrated from Ireland to foreign countries.

How the Day Was Spent.

GETTYSBURG, Pa., Sept. 9.—The second day of Camp Samuel Harper was devoted to religious exercises, in which the veterans took part, and to a drive over the battlefield and a dress parade. Chaplain Savres preached the sermon in the morning, and there was a service of song in the evening. Many more veterans are expected.

Robbed His Employer.

PLAINFIELD, N. J., Sept. 9.—Herman Denick, a firm hand employed by Joseph King, of Sterling, robbed his employer of $100 in cash, a gold watch and chain, and wearing apparel worth $100, Sunday afternoon, and drove to this place. He abandoned the rig here and escaped to New York. An officer is on his trail.

THE CRONIN JURY.

But Little Progress Made in Securing Jurymen.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—But little progress was made yesterday in the work of securing a jury in the Cronin murder trial. When the court adjourned at 4 o'clock but one talesman was held over. Twenty-one were excused by the court during the day for cause and seven were peremptorily challenged by the defense.

Lawyer Forrest, who is defending ex-Detective Coughlin in the Cronin trial, with the aid of three large and heavy built men, raided the Carlson cottage and succeeded in getting away with pieces of the flooring and walls covered with spots of Cronin's blood. Since the cottage has become famous it has been arranged for the inspection of visitors by the building of a railing across the corner of the room. When the attorney commenced digging up the flooring with a pocket knife Carlson and his son-in-law, Mr. Lindgren, attempted to stop him, Carlson presenting a revolver at Forrest's head.

The three men accompanying Forrest jumped over the railing and overpowered Carlson and Lindgren and held them down on the floor until the lawyer had completed his work. They also took Carlson's revolver away from him. Having secured the specimens, Forrest and his accomplices jumped into a carriage and drove away. When they had safely seated themselves and the horses had been beaten whipped up, one of them threw Carlson's revolver back into the yard. Several officers were sent out to hunt Forrest last night, but they were unable to find him. The lawyer's three accomplices are unknown, and Carlson and Lindgren can give but a vague description of them.

State's Attorney Lengenecker said that there was no intention, as stated in a morning paper, of arresting Mrs. Tom Whalen. It is reported that the state are satisfied that they can get more valuable information from her, when she appears as a witness for the defense, as it is stated she will. Were she in the position of one accused of participation in the crime, she could refuse to answer important questions on the ground that her answers might be used against her on her own trial; appearing as a witness for the defense, she may ply her with questions, truthful answers to which may throw much light on the O'Sullivan house and the Carlson cottage on the night of May 4. Should she evade the questions or refuse to answer, it would certainly be prejudicial to the accused men.

Suspect Coughlin's Wife Talks.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 10.—The Journal's Duluth, Minn., special says: Mrs. Maggie Coughlin, wife of the Cronin suspect, is in the city. She says that she is willing to tell what she knows on the witness stand. She avers that the statement that her husband wore his uniform on the night of the murder is incorrect. She complains that she suffered the indignity of having all her personal letters opened in Chicago before they reach her.

Ocean Storm at Atlantic City, N. J.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Sept. 10.—Atlantic City was visited last night by a terrific ocean storm, the waters extending to a point at least 500 feet from the beach proper, damaging the both houses and pavilions along the beach to the extent of about $50,000. Jackson's pavilion was almost entirely washed away, and Lee's both houses and pavilions were greatly damaged. The board walks in dangerous portions have been roped off by the Bradford Life Guards, which have averted loss of life as the walk is in parts entirely washed away and in some places in a very wretched condition. Thousands of people watched the progress of the waters until a late hour, when they began to recede.

Killed by a Brick.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 10.—John Kolbl was killed yesterday evening by being struck in the breast with a brick alleged to have been thrown by a negro named William Chester in the saloon of John Frisch, at No. 2443 East Monument street. At 9 o'clock Sergeant Thomas F. Hogan, who was looking for Chester, came up with his man and arrested him. Chester tried to escape. He struck the sergeant a heavy blow and knocked him to his knees. Sergeant Hogan drew his pistol and fired four shots at Chester. One of the bullets struck Chester in the back of the neck and killed him. Kolbl was 30 years old and leaves a wife and three children at No. 504 Rose street.

Forest Fires.

HELENA, Mont., Sept. 10.—Information has just been received here that one of the fiercest forest fires yet reported is raging in St. Regis district in Missoula county, on the Coteau ranch. Coteau and the hosts of the ranch mounted horses and barely escaped with their lives to the river, less than a quarter of a mile away and reached the water after having the clothes nearly all burned from their bodies. A Swedish prospector and his horse perished in the flames. J. C. Veeder, who has returned from the Le Regis county, says he feels certain that several men perished in the conflagration higher up in the mountains.

Acquittal of the Third Trial.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Dr. Elwell A. Powell, who killed Editor Ralph Smith at Redwood City two years ago, because of an article in Smith's paper reflecting upon Powell, was convicted Saturday night of manslaughter. On two former trials the juries disagreed.

Never Drink Any More.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Sept. 10.—While Frank Cowan, of Gilliam, and Frank Blewett, of Marshall, Mo., were drunk last night they fell asleep on the Alton track at Marshall. The Chicago train for Kansas City ran over them and killed both.

THE EVENING BULLETIN

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
Proprietors

TUESDAY, SEPT. 10, 1889.

THERE are four prominent citizens of Lexington mentioned as candidates for Mayor of that city, among them General Robinson, late Collector of this district. The fight promises to be a lively one.

THE Government now has 452,557 people on the pension rolls. In 1873 there were only 99,808. The amount paid out on this account has increased in same time from $11,000,000 to nearly $100,000,000. And the end is not yet.

THE Cincinnati Commercial Gazette says that large numbers of Confederate soldiers will support Mahone on account of their love for him as a Confederate General. Halstead is indulging in idle talk. They will take delight in voting against him.

THE Portsmouth Blade wants the sugar trust smashed by repealing the sugar tax. Foraker in his speech at Zenia last Saturday asserted that "the tariff had nothing whatever to do with trusts." Really these Republicans ought to compare notes and be a little more consistent on the subject of trusts.

PRESIDENT HARRISON'S distribution of the spoils in New York has stirred up a big war among the Republicans of that section. Warner Miller refuses to attend the State convention. He says that Harrison has handed the Empire State over to Platt and Hiscock, and that they may do the nominating and the "falling outside the breastworks" themselves this year. He is tired of the business, and finds that it does not pay.

CONGRESSMAN PETERS, (Rep.) of Kansas, who watched the recent election in Lafayette, in the Third Louisiana district, says it was fair and free, negroes voting without hindrance. But rabid Republican editors who were not on the ground will still persist in crying that the negroes were defrauded out of their vote. It is reported that the Democrats made large gains in one parish where many white Republicans from the North lately settled. How will Halstead and his associate bloody shirt editors account for this?

THE National Grange met at Bangor, Me., the other day, and if its members are to be taken as representatives of the farmers of this country, that class, it seems are getting their eyes open on the tariff question. Mr. J. H. Bigham, Grand Master of the order, delivered an address in which he said:

"Farmers object to being taxed to enrich other classes. A tariff is a tax. The only question is, does the producer or the consumer pay it? There is no question that the present system falls unjustly upon the farmers, and that it needs readjusting."

Commenting on this the Courier-Journal says: "There is no law better settled than that all burdens placed upon any commodity fall ultimately upon the consumer."

Cleveland Versus Harrison.
Here's a comparison that few Republicans will like to see published. It is from the Louisville Times:

Grover Cleveland was President during the months of July and August, 1885, when the public debt was reduced $11,541,842; he was President during the months of July and August, 1886, when the public debt was reduced $10,654,802; he was President during the months of July and August, 1887, when the debt was reduced $9,654,371; he was President during the months of July and August, 1888, when the debt was reduced $11,461,974.

Ben Harrison was President during the months of July and August, 1889, and for that period the public debt was INCREASED $7,394,006.

It should also be borne in memory that for July and August, 1889, the revenues were greater than for the corresponding months in any year of Cleveland's administration.

That Constitutional Convention Vote
The work of tabulating the official returns of the vote on the Constitutional Convention has reached fifty-six counties, from Adair to Jefferson inclusive, and the result is as follows: Registered, 159,357; voting for Constitution, 96,598; majority over all the registered voters, 16,919.

The full Presidential vote last November in the same fifty-six counties was 185,299, one-half of which is 92,650. From this it may be seen that there is a majority for the Constitution of 3,948 over the highest actual vote known in the State—a result establishing beyond a doubt or quibble, the express wishes of the people on the necessity for a new Constitution.

It is thought, from a casual survey of the rest of the counties in the State, that there can be question of the adoption of the measure in an equal ratio, both in majority of the registered voters and the actual vote of the last Presidential election.

Henry Clay's "American System."

"The New York Commercial Advertiser has been worrying its Protectionist contemporaries by reprinting extracts from Henry Clay's tariff speeches," says the Philadelphia Record. "They read very much like current tariff reform editorials. Mr. Clay held that the cost of labor was so inconsiderable an element in the scheme of protection as to be hardly worth mentioning. Our cheap raw materials and the better quality of our labor, he insisted, more than counterbalanced the disadvantage of the low wages of labor in Great Britain. It was 'protected' labor. Skilled workmen obtained $4 per week for eleven hours work per day. Such labor now, unprotected, earns from $6.25 to $8.75 per week for eight hours work per day."

"Mr. Clay disclaimed the cheap demagoguery which seeks to cheat the laboring man out of his vote by making him believe that to vote for protection is to vote himself better wages. He favored protection as a measure of reprisal against nations whose hostile tariffs affected adversely the trade of the United States. He was in favor of free trade with free traders. 'Go home,' he said in debate with Colonel Hayne, who was born abroad, 'to your native Europe, and there inculcate upon her sovereigns your Utopian doctrine of free trade, and when you have prevailed upon them to unseal their ports and freely admit the produce of this country, come back, and we shall be prepared to become converts and to adopt your faith.'"

The Turf, Field and Farm.
The Farmer's Home Journal says Kentucky grows one-half of the whole American supply of leaf tobacco.

The wonderful "Guy," 2:10½, will try to beat Maud S.'s record, 2:08½, Thursday, at Cincinnati, for a purse of $2,500.

The crop bulletin for the week ending September 7 is of a more encouraging tenor generally than those of the previous three or four weeks. The weather was characterized by the most excessive rains of the season. They were general throughout the State, and much benefit has resulted from them. Reports indicate that the rains have greatly revived vegetation of all kinds, although there is some complaint of damage to ripe tobacco. Early tobacco is being rapidly cut and housed. The crop will doubtless be short in most parts of the State, but the prospect is much better now than it was a week ago. Almost without exception the reports received state that corn is in the best possible condition, and, barring unforeseen detriments, the yield will be unparalleled. The recent heavy rains will tend to make it fill out more thoroughly. Pastures and grass lands are much better than they were a week ago.

LAST OF THE SEASON.

Third Personally Conducted Excursion Over the C. and O.

The most successful excursions run this season have been the two personally conducted limited excursions over the C. and O. R'y. They have added greatly to the wide popularity of that beautiful line. The last of the series leaves Cincinnati September 21. It will not be a crowded, uncomfortable journey, but an ideal pleasure tour through the heart of the most picturesque and historically interesting regions of America. A superb special train, vestibuled from end to end, will leave Cincinnati at 8:15 a. m., reach White Sulphur Springs the first night, Natural Bridge the next afternoon, Richmond the day following, and Old Point Comfort the third evening. The tourists will see all interesting points en route, and will be driven in carriages through Richmond. The trip up the Ohio Valley, over the Alleghenies and Blue Ridge, and down the historic Peninsula is made entirely by daylight.

The oyster down in his bed of ooze, Waked with a start from his summer snooze, Opened his shell and said with a yawn:—"I fear that our season of safety is gone, For my pleasant dreams were disturbed by the jar That always is caused by the letter R. And I know, by the feel of that hideous loop, That some of us shortly will be in the soup!"

THE MARKETS.

Tobacco.

Furnished by Glover & Dunnett, proprietors Louisville Tobacco Warehouse.

Sales on our market for the week just closed amount to 2,598 blbs. with receipts for the same period amounting to 2,838 blbs. Sales on our market since January 1st amount to 94,133 blbs. Sales of the crop of 1888, on our market up to this date amount to 67,718 blbs.

The dry weather which was beginning to call forth much complaint from tobacco growers was terminated the past week by five days of abundant rains, and it is now thought that much damage has been done to that part of the crop which was about ready for the knife; this being especially true of the burley section. The offerings of burley have been very large again this week, and there is no change to note in prices from last week.

The following quotations fairly represent our market for burley tobacco crop of 1888:

Trash (dark) or damaged tobacco	2 50	4 00
Col. try trash	4 50	7 50
Common lugs, not colored	4 00	6 00
Colored lugs	8 00	11 00
Common leaf	8 00	13 00
Medium to good leaf	13 00	18 00
Select or wrapper leaf	18 00	33 00

CAPTAIN LINTON

Death of a Well-known Citizen of Aberdeen—Brief Sketch of His Life.

Captain William Linton, of Aberdeen, died yesterday afternoon at 3:20 o'clock at the home of his daughter, Mrs. C. W. Galbraith, of Manchester. He was taken sick about eight months ago while visiting her, and was never able to return home. Though his sufferings were painful, he bore them patiently to the end.

The deceased was born in Ireland, April 28, 1819, and emigrated to this country in June, 1853, locating at Pittsburg. In March, 1868, he bought the Maysville and Aberdeen ferry, and moved to the latter place where he spent the rest of his life. In October, 1881, he sold the ferry interest to Captain Power, and was never engaged in any active business after that. Since the death of his wife in May, 1887, he made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Charles Sutton, of Aberdeen.

The funeral will occur Wednesday, the procession leaving Manchester at 9:30 a. m., passing through Aberdeen at 1:30 p. m. Any friends desiring to attend will find carriages at the home of Chas. Sutton, Aberdeen. The remains will be interred in Charter Oak Cemetery, below Aberdeen.

His success has been phenomenal. He owns his beautiful home on Fourth street, his creditors have been appeased, and life is at its rosiest for him. As a politician he hasn't an equal in the State, but he is too busy barricading against the wolf of poverty to be tempted in that direction."

Another Complaint.

ASHLAND, KAN., September 6, 1889.
Mr. Rosser: How is it my DAILY BULLETIN is so irregular? I am not getting more than one-third of them, and when they come, they come two at a time. Talk to your postmaster. I very much value the DAILY BULLETIN, and would like very much to get it regularly.

R. E. TAYLOR
Mr. Taylor's paper is mailed to him regularly before six o'clock every day of publication. After it is deposited in the office here it is beyond our control. We regret it is not within our power to do any more to insure Mr. Taylor and the rest of our subscribers their papers regularly.

The Government authorities should give some attention to the many complaints about the miserable mail service.

A Big Bread Show.

The biggest premium at the Manchester fair last week was $15 for the best loaf of salt-rising bread, and it stirred up a big row. Nearly every woman in Adams County, and many from adjoining counties, who was versed at all in the culinary art, must have tried for that blue ribbon, as there were loaves upon loaves piled up in the floral hall. In fact, it must have been the greatest bread show in all this section for a long while. The directors finally prevailed on some parties to assume the risk of tying the ribbon. After the premium was awarded it was discovered that one of the judges was related to the successful exhibitor, and, of course, this created a big racket. New judges had to be selected, and the ribbon was tied the second time. The unsuccessful exhibitors didn't quiet down, however. They declared the judges "didn't know anything about bread no-how." It is not likely the company will offer any such premium in the future.

Close of Rev. D. A. Beardsley's Pastorate at the M. E. Church, South.

Rev. D. A. Beardsley preached the closing sermon of his pastorate at the M. E. Church, South, Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. An unusually large audience was present, although no special announcement had been made in the papers that the sermon would be his final one for the present conference year. The rite of infant baptism was administered to Mr. and Mrs. Samuel M. Hall's two children at the commencement of the services. Mr. Beardsley's sermon—from the text "I have finished the fight; I have kept the faith, &c."—was an earnest discourse on the true christian character as exemplified in the life of the great Apostle. Miss Lelia Wheeler was present and sang two solos, her sweet voice and perfect rendering of the selections charming her hearers.

This closed Mr. Beardsley's thirty-first year in the ministry. Of these seven were spent in the Louisville Conference and twenty-four in the Kentucky Conference. He has filled many of the best appointments in the two conferences, having preached at Shelbyville, Versailles, Frankfort, Newport, Paris, Flemingsburg and Maysville during the time. He is the first preacher in eighteen years to serve four years as pastor of the church in this city—the limit allowed at any one place by the rules of his denomination.

During Mr. Beardsley's pastorate in Maysville he preached over four hundred sermons, and received seventy people into the church. He also officiated at as many funerals and marriages, perhaps, as any other minister in Maysville.

He leaves to-day to attend conference at Paris.

A FUNERAL INSTEAD OF A WEDDING.

An Aged Alabamian Expires at the Hour Set for His Marriage.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Sept. 10.—James L. Barnhill, of Ashland, Clay county, died at 8 o'clock last Thursday night, the hour appointed for his wedding. Barnhill was over 70 years old, and was one of the most prominent citizens of the county. A short time ago he became engaged to Mrs. Dona Clayton, a widow about 40 years old.

Great preparations were made for the wedding, which was to have taken place Thursday night at 8 o'clock. Wednesday Barnhill bought a marriage license, and Thursday he was suddenly taken very ill. A large number of guests had been invited, and they began to arrive early in the afternoon. At the hour appointed for the wedding Barnhill breathed his last in the arms of his intended bride, surrounded by the guests bidden to the wedding.

Chicago Bound to Have It.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—The Times will say: "Within the next few days some important developments are promised in connection with Chicago's world's fair project. A syndicate, composed of some of the wealthiest and most influential citizens of the city, has been organized, and proposes to put up not less than $12,000,000, and even more, if necessary, to make Chicago's success certain. Already $6,000,000 has been assured, and the other plan, when completed, will give the organization a backing of $25,000,000."

A Missing Prisoner Discovered.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Richard E. Taylor, who is charged with complicity in the forgery by which Wells, Fargo & Company's agent at San Jose lost $4,800 several months ago, was captured yesterday on the steamer Australia, which is lying at her dock here. Taylor was arrested in Honolulu several weeks ago and brought to San Francisco on the Australia, but when the steamer arrived in port last Saturday he was missing. He was found concealed in the hold yesterday.

A Dangerous Ball to Play With.

CLARKSBURG, W. Va., Sept. 10.—An Italian working on the Midland railroad eight miles north of here picked up a dynamite cartridge yesterday and began tossing it to a companion who let it fall and it exploded. Two of the Italians were literally torn to pieces.

CHIEF CLERK ASKS HELP.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Miss Clara Barton, president of the Red Cross society, who has been superintending the hospital and relief stations for food and clothing in Johnstown, Pa., since the great flood, intimates that she desires additional help. She desired that Mrs. A. G. Hammond should return and assume charge of the relief station. Mrs. Hammond has responded to Miss Barton's appeal and will leave for the valley of the Conemaugh to-morrow. She will be accompanied by Mrs. William Sexton and Miss Nellie Law. The party will remain probably a month.

Shot His Friend and Employee.

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Albert Bement, editor of The Master Steam Fitter and Heating Engineer, and Edward Cavell, an employee of his, and his room mate were on a spree last night. They went to their lodgings at the corner of Cass and Illinois street in a cab. There they became involved in a fight with the cab driver and Cavell drew a revolver, and in attempting to shoot the cab driver shot his friend and employer in the head, inflicting a probably fatal wound. Cavell and the cab driver are under arrest. Bement is at his boarding house.

A Watch Company Assigns.

AURORA, Ill., Sept. 10.—The Aurora Watch company has assigned, with liabilities amounting to nearly $250,000. The assets are supposed to be double that amount. The managers of the concern say the shut-down is only temporary, and it is rumored that a syndicate is at the bottom of the matter.

More Uniform Than British.

In England we do not date quite so much upon uniforms as they do in France, and little incidents of this kind are therefore not very likely to occur on this side of the Channel. Still a very well known English cabinet minister—it is useless to say that he was a Gladstonian—did once get into difficulties, not through going about in uniform, but through wearing too much uniform. We will not mention the gentleman's name, for he is still extant and it might hurt his dignified Gladstonian feelings. This distinguished politician—not even his friends ever thought he was a statesman—was once upon a time first lord of the admiralty. Full of the importance of his office, he determined to wear the gorgeous uniform of lord high admiral, whose representative he was. The first time he had official business with the fleet the right honorable gentleman put on his uniform and went aboard one of her majesty's ships. The minister, who liked to look upon himself as lord high admiral, had his flag run up and the vessel started. In a few minutes one of the officers came up and politely touched his hat to the first lord. "If you please, sir, what are your orders?" he asked. "Orders! what orders?" "As your flag is flying you are in command." "But I don't understand at all." "Well, sir, you are in command, and in a few minutes we shall run into the queen's yacht. Will you give me my orders?" The unlucky first lord became crimson with vexation, and the lord high admiral's pennant was promptly hauled down.—St. James' Gazette.

"Shooting" Wells with Torpedos.

An effective mode for increasing the yield of wells is to "shoot" them with nitro-glycerine. This was done with excellent results in Pennsylvania. The well operated upon was a six-inch one, with a depth of three hundred and fifteen feet. It was bored principally through solid rock. The result of the explosion was expected to open up a region a hundred and fifty feet in diameter, thus tapping a large area for drawing room. A torpedo six inches in diameter and two feet six inches long was filled with rackerock, with a quarter gallon can of nitro-glycerine at the bottom, and was lowered with a tarred rope and deposited at the bottom of the well. A smaller torpedo, containing more rackerock, with a small copper fulminate of mercury cap and fuse leading to the surface, was then sent down. In two minutes after the fuse was lighted the water in the well was thrown a hundred feet into the air and the work was done.—New York Telegram.

SERIOUS ILLNESS OF SUNSET COX

His Physicians Give Up All Hope of His Recovery.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Congressman S. S. Cox is dying of malarial fever at his residence, 18 East Twelfth street. Six physicians, including Dr. Fordyce Barker and Dr. Stanton, of Washington, were in consultation yesterday, and at noon all hope of his recovery was given up. His wife was prostrated with grief. Mr. Cox returned several weeks ago from a lecturing tour in Dakota and Washington Territory in his usual good health.

Two weeks ago he went to Washington in the interest of one of his constituents and caught cold, which was followed by malarial fever. Mr. Cox's physicians think he can hardly live through the day. It was not until yesterday that his illness assumed the danger necessitating the calling of so many physicians.

Mr. Cox's condition this morning is not materially changed. He seems to rally and the doctors think that the turning point for better or worse will be reached within twelve hours. The chief symptoms are pneumonia. He retains his faculties and wants to see the numerous people to call to inquire after him, but the physicians will not let him see anyone.

Ives and Staynor in Court.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—The trial of Henry S. Ives and George S. Staynor for issuing fraudulent Hamilton and Dayton railroad stock was to have come off yesterday before Recorder Smyth, in part 3, general sessions. Counsel for the prisoners demanded separate trials. It was decided to try Ives first. The two prisoners were then taken back to Ludlow street jail.

Two Men Killed.

PRINCETON, W. Va., Sept. 10.—In the Simmons Creek mines yesterday S. L. Esley and S. T. Fowler, miners, entered the shaft to look for their tools, which were in a disused part. While doing so a large cut of coal and slate became dislodged and fell, crushing them both to death. They both leave large families.

Shot His Divorced Wife and Himself.

LOS ANGELES, Cal., Sept. 10.—At San Pedro yesterday, John McGuffie shot and killed his divorced wife who had refused to return to him and then shot himself in the breast, inflicting a wound that will probably result fatally.

Livery Stable Burned.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Sept. 10.—The finest livery stable in the territory burned yesterday at Laramie. The horses were saved, but many costly carriages were destroyed. Loss, $50,000, partially insured.

Fair weather, followed by light rain; stationary temperature; slightly cooler, westerly winds.

PRICES CURRENT.

Review of the Money, Stock and Cattle Quotations for Sept. 9.

NEW YORK—Money at 3 per cent. Currency notes, 118 bid; four coupons 128; four-and-halves, 105½ bid. The stock market was active and strong at the opening and the first prices showed advances of ½ to ¾ per cent. The upward movement continued throughout the first hour and under the leadership of Northern Pacific and Manitoba prices further advanced. At 11 o'clock the improvement ranged from ½ to 1½ per cent. The market was not so active after 11 o'clock, and although it continued strong during the first half of the hour to 11:30, there was some selling of the leaders which resulted in a sharp reaction all around. At this writing the market is dull but steady.
